Prime Wine

A comprehensive package specially designed for wineries of all sizes

Winery coverage you can count on

Sutherland's Prime Wine insurance coverage protects your business from the unique risks of winery operations. Custom-designed for the winery industry, our coverage is managed by experienced and highly-qualified specialists who understand the challenges associated with the wine-making process.

Choose your coverage

From a full package with optional enhancements to select coverages, we offer customized protection that's right for your winery. Standard commercial manufacturing coverage is included in all packages to ensure your commercial assets are fully protected.

Sutherland's Prime Wine package addresses risks every step of the way

Process	Risk	How Sutherland Insurance helps
Harvesting	Damage to grapes because of weather, weeds, soil and insects	We reimburse the actual cash value of the grapes
Crushing	Water contamination or leakage, equipment damage	We reimburse the cost of replacing water used for processing
Fermentation/storage/ bottling	Wine leakage and/or property damage as a direct result of wine leakage	We insure the value of the leaked wine for its selling price and any resultant property damage for replacement cost
Packaging and transportation	Damage to business contents, such as stock and equipment, during transit	We insure damage to wine products (including leakage) en route to and at exhibitions, trade shows and other special events for their selling price
